www.ChinaTravelService.com
Relish China’s delectable regional cuisines, the hearty dishes of the North, the spicy fare of Sichuan cookery, the fresh, delicate flavors of Cantonese cuisine and more. Our tour includes meals at the most distinctive restaurants in China. Experience the amazing variety of Chinese regional cuisines in lovely dining environments, from traditional to the cutting-edge.

BEIJING

Da Dong Peking Duck
Our welcome dinner is at the Da Dong Restaurant, recognized as the premier restaurant for this Chinese delicacy.

The Bai Family Garden Restaurant
(No show for lunch, the seats should be in the main hall for show). Serving up contemporary cuisine in a spectacularly designed setting, this Qing dynasty throwback restaurant is something of a time machine. Peking Opera acts entertain the crowds during the evenings, but the restaurant’s re-creations of classic dishes like gongbao shrimp are equal to the entertainment. It is perfect for wowing out-of-town guests.

Champion Mansion
Next to the Summer Palace, it is used to be a mansion for a prince, a brother of Empress Dowager Cixi. You will enjoy delicious delicacy and experience the royal service of ancient China and be served like a royal family member!
Cost: RMB350/pax with one soft drink

XI’AN

De Fa Chang Dumpling Restaurant
Nestled in a residence for the famous concubine Ding Xiang, this restaurant—in-a-mansion is often cited as one of the city’s bets for Shanghai cuisine. Dishes are noted for their elegant presentation and delicate southern flavors.

HANGZHOU

Lou Wai Lou Restaurant
Lou Wai literally means a ‘building outside a building’, and is Hangzhou’s most famous restaurant, apparently with a history of more than 150 years. Situated at the foot of Gushan (Solitary Hill), Lou Wai is perfect for tourists wanting a taste traditional Hangzhou cuisine and the beautiful scenery of West Lake.

GUILIN

Tea Cuisine Restaurant
This restaurant emphasizes the Chinese tea culture. The tea banquet (cuisines cooking with tea) is popular among foreign guests as well as local people. Dishes served in this restaurant also melt the Guilin local culture. Each dish is titled with an interesting name that related to the famous landscape or scene in Guilin.
